At the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of September, 1859.

Present:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty,
His Royal Highness the Prince Consort,
Duke of Richmond,
Earl of Elgin,
Lord John Russell.

WHEREAS, the Governor of Her Majesty's Island of Vancouver, with the Council and Assembly of the said Island, did in the month of April, 1859, pass an Act which has been transmitted, entitled as follows: viz.,

No. 7. An Act to provide for the passage of an Act for the Preservation of Game.

And whereas the said Act has been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with a letter to the Lord President of the Council, from the Most Noble the Duke of Newcastle, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, recommending that the said Act should be left to its operation, Her Majesty was thereupon this day pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve the said recommendation, whereof the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander-in-Chief, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Island of Vancouver, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.
